IN RE: 1:01-cv-447, Ferrell v Wyeth-Ayerst Labs.

TO ALL LOCAL COUNSEL RE: ELECTRONIC CASE FILING

It is Judge Beckwith's policy that all counsel admitted pro hac vice are to register for electronic case filing within a reasonable period of time after having been granted such admission. All of the counsel granted pro hac vice admission to date have had an ample amount of time to register, and have not.

The purpose for registering for electronic case filing is so that everyone receives notice of any filing, by any party, at the same time. It also eliminates the court having to notify those not registered, by regular U.S. mail.

It is your responsibility, as a member of the bar of this Court, to ensure that the attorneys not presently registered for electronic case filing, do so immediately. This can be accomplished by contacting Lisa Wright at 614.719.3222.

Sincerely,

Mary Brown
Case Manager to Judge Beckwith
